

Certified Management Systems Practitioners Benefits

- Subscribe to the SASQ Code of Conduct and Ethics
- Use of SASQ certification designations (SASQ MS Professional)
- Membership Certificate
- Networking opportunities with local and international experts
- Newsletters
- Other SASQ publications
- Notification of vacancies
- Information in the discipline of quality systems management
- Sharing of quality systems management practices and challenges at SASQ workshops and Seminars
- Invitations to Management Systems events and workshops
- 25 % discount to SASQ events and workshops where there is a fee
- Opportunity to contribute to the voice of quality
- Be updated on relevant management systems knowledge and skills
- Certified Members have the opportunity to be involved in the management of the society.
- Certified Members participate in compulsory CPD programmes at discounted fees
- Certified Members can represent SASQ at committees with prior permission and approval from SASQ
- Certified Members have voting rights at an AGM
- Assist in the development of standards of practice for Management Systems Practitioners
- Opportunities to influence the development and review of Management Systems Standards